

ELECTRICITY FROM EUROPE.

Petty Devices of the British Government
Against the Irish People.

The Irish Leaders' Programme—Kelly's
Third Trial in Progress.

Growing Discontent in Egypt—Bismarck and the Insurance Companies.

The Chess Tournament—Money for the English Egyptian Troops.

TIMOTHY KELLY'S THIRD TRIAL.

DELRID, May 7.—The third trial of Timothy Kelly for participation in the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke was begun to-day. James Carey, the informer, on being called to the stand, swore that everyone of the Irishmen, with the exception of Joe Brady, had offered to turn informer. Carey said he was the last man who offered to testify against the prisoners.

Joseph Hanlon, another informer, confirmed the evidence given by Carey and Kavanaugh to the effect that Kelly was one of the four men who were in the Phoenix park on the evening of the Phoenix park murders were committed.

RECEIVED A SHOCK.

LONDON, May 7.—The Times this morning, referring to the vote by which the affirmation bill was defeated, says the authority and power of the government have received a shock. This, without doubt, the ministers will recognize themselves. The spell of their success is broken.

THE FISHERIES EXHIBITION.

LONDON, May 7.—The work of arranging for the opening of the universal fisheries exhibition is rapidly proceeding. The American department has obtained 1,300 feet additional space from Denmark. The goods from America will thus be exhibited to better advantage. A prominent feature of the American department will be 40 crayon drawings, illustrating the whole process of fish culture.

MONEY FOR THE VETERANS.

LONDON, May 7.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Mr. Gladstone announced that, instead of the pensions which it was proposed to bestow upon Lord Wolsey and Lord Alcester (Admiral Seymour) they would be given a lump sum of money. This change in the manner of rewarding the military and naval leaders of the late movement against the Egyptian rebels, it is believed, is due to the outcry which has been raised against the provision in the bill providing pensions, which declares that they shall, on the death of the beneficiaries, revert to their nearest heirs.

BISMARCK'S CENTRALIZATION.

BERLIN, May 7.—Prince Bismarck has issued a circular to the officials of the different Prussian provinces, in which he orders an inquiry as to the extent of the injuries inflicted on the national wealth by reason of the greater part of the fire insurance business being in the hands of private companies. He asserts that the profits of the companies are too high, owing to an unjust increase in the scale of premiums and too low an assessment of damages by fire. The companies entirely deny the accusations, the sole aim of which they assert is to render popular the desire of Prince Bismarck to nationalize all kinds of insurance.

THE CHESS TOURNAMENT.

LONDON, May 7.—In the chess tournament yesterday Rosenthal and Winemer and Noa and Mason played drawn games. English defeated Sullivan. To-day Rosenthal beat Mortimer, Blackburn beat English, and Bird beat McKenzie.

PETTY DEVICES OF THE BRITISH.

LONDON, May 7.—Reports of national league meetings in Ireland annoy the government greatly, and statements made by Mr. Harrington, M. P., D. Sullivan, M. P., and other Irish leaders, published in the morning papers, show that agitation is to be carried on more persistently than ever, if that were possible. The government is openly accused of tampering with the detectives, police, and witnesses, and of using the most unscrupulous and petty devices to crush out liberty in Ireland. Harrington especially says that the system of government interference is malignant, spiteful, and malicious. While Englishmen and Americans could not well be prevented from contributing to the fund, the administration is charged with intimidating Irishmen from making such contributions. Detectives are accused of bribing confined prisoners with money and whisky to secure evidence and manufacture evidence, and procure informers to swear away the lives of innocent men. They make definite accusations on this subject and locate times and places, especially at the railway junctions, where the population of Ireland, according to these reports, is fleeing as fast as it can raise money to other countries, and English rulers are encouraging by money, argument, and official influence, such wholesale emigration as a means for the destruction of the Irish people. The minister officially witnesses such departures and encourages them by speeches. Harrington made this morning to say that "such a condition of affairs could not be possible in any other civilized country." Sullivan says emigration is the "darling passion" and such statements are daily reported and read.

GROWING DISCONTENT IN EGYPT.

CAIRO, May 7.—Every day complications matters here, and the current complaint is, among officials and officers who want to go home, that Lord Dufferin's policy is only a paper policy, and that only officers who are employed in carrying out the long promised reforms by which the troops expected to have been enabled to go home two months ago. The ill feeling of the natives on the question of what, to them, is a foreign occupation, increases every day, and offences of an insulting kind are every day growing so common that they are almost unendurable. While Gen. Dornier was out shooting a few days ago he was treated like a foreigner, and was accused of insulting the troops, and was treated with violence, although no damage had actually been done. This feeling grows greater with every success of the Fash and almost daily successes are attributed to El Mehi in his advances in the Sudan. This adds greatly to the strength of the extreme Moslem party, whose adherents act in the most fanatical way. Officers and soldiers are, as has been already reported, insulted with impunity in the streets, and are not in a position to show resentment, which might bring results amounting to riot. To-day at least half a dozen English ladies, who were venturesome enough to leave their homes for the most ordinary purposes, were insulted in various ways, and might have met with violence had they even dared to call for assistance from men in uniform. El Mehi is doing most successfully by his Sudan successes, precisely the work which Arabi Pasha failed to do, and his influence here and in Alexandria, to say nothing of the fellahs in the outlying districts, is something that cannot be overcome by an army, as Arabi's strength was. The policy of the government in raising difficulties in the proceedings before the Alexandria court martial creates the most unfavorable impression with the native leaders, who believe that political convenience was the one object which the English government had in interfering in the case of Arabi and that prisoners of less prominence may not in jail for all the English care, since they show no inclination to push the trials. The appearance on the scene of Tewfik Pasha's two brothers has created a new and more serious situation, and the improbable statement is made that Hussein Pasha will be made minister of war in place of Omar Pasha Louti, and

"USURPATORY" ARISTOCRACY.

Scandal in the Family of S. J. Tilden.

NEW YORK, May 7.—In the surrogate's court to-day much excitement was created by the development of a peculiar, interesting, and romantic story. The principal actors are young men of high social standing and wealth. The story is as follows: In 1869 William Tilden, a brother of S. J. Tilden, died, leaving an estate valued at $2,500,000. He divided it equally between his four sons—William, Milnor C., Marmaduke, and Beverly B. Tilden, aged 20, 15, 12, and 9 years. For the eldest of the four, William, David Dow, Charles Tracey, and N. C. Ely were appointed executors. In 1870 the executors employed an Italian named Biaggi as tutor and manager for the boys and they were sent to Europe. In Paris they acquired the reputation of being the "Princes of Wales" and other members of the royal family of England. They then proceeded to Berlin and lived in sumptuous style, expending in sixteen months about $70,000. The eldest of the four, William, purchased a place in Coburg for $40,000, and with it the title of baron. While in his palace he became very much interested in the wife of the former owner, and very soon was under complete control of her husband, to whom he gave a power of attorney, and permitted to purchase all the furniture for his palace. In 1872 the executors discovered the condition of affairs abroad, and by the payment of very large sums to the young man was enabled to bring him to this country. The four then conceived the idea of a ball in honor of Americans in Germany. They hired an immense hall at great expense, and gave the ball, which was well attended. When they returned home the executors footed up their expenses for two years and four months as $185,000. They were sent to Howard college, but did not remain there. William was made an executor of the estate and in 1874 a partition was made, whereby he was given the estate. He was compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid. In 1877 the eldest of the four, William, was again in Germany, and he was again under the control of the wife of the former owner, and he was again compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid. In 1877 the eldest of the four, William, was again in Germany, and he was again under the control of the wife of the former owner, and he was again compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid.

RICHMOND NEWS.

An Attempt at Murder—The Manager of the Penitentiary Assaulted by a Convict—
Railway Matters.

RICHMOND, Va., May 7.—Early this morning George S. Peyton, proprietor of a store on Venable street, went to the old market and told a butcher that he had started out to kill four colored men, and intended to do it in a very short while. Peyton had two large pistols in his hands at the time, and when he left the butcher and walked off flourishing the two revolvers, Policeman Hardie was informed of what Peyton had said, and that officer immediately went in search of him. The first colored man that Peyton saw was Barney Branch, a quiet and inoffensive fish dealer in the market. Peyton walked deliberately up to him, and placing one of the revolvers at Branch's head, fired. The bullet entered just under the left ear and passed through the neck, making a dangerous wound. Branch fell to the pavement, and as soon as he struck the ground Peyton jumped on him and attempted to fire again, and would have done so but for the timely arrival of Policeman Hardie, who caught Peyton's hand and took the pistols away from him. Peyton made an effort to shoot Mr. Hardie, but the policeman was too quick for him. The affair created considerable excitement, and caused a general stampede in the market. Subsequently small crowds of people congregated about the market and talked over the shooting, which was severely condemned on all sides. William Slater, a white man, publicly asserted that he would be the first to kill Peyton out of the station house, where he had been hastily taken, and lynch him. An officer heard the remark and arrested Slater. He was taken before the police court and bound over in the sum of $300 to keep the peace. Peyton was taken to the station house and held in custody. His case was continued until Friday in consequence of the inability of the wounded man to appear. Branch may probably die. Peyton was formerly proprietor of St. Charles Hotel. His friends claim that he was charged with a colored convict, who is serving a term of fifteen years for burglary. Mr. Wood remanded the convict for failure to do his duty. This made the prisoner mad, and he picked up a cooper's adze and dealt Mr. Wood a severe blow on the head, inflicting an ugly wound, from which blood flowed freely. The other convicts ran to the assistance of Mr. Wood, and would not doubt have killed the convict who struck him had not the guards been called in and quieted the enraged convicts at the point of pistols and guns.

BASE BALL BULLETIN.

Games in Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia,
and Other Cities.

Special Dispatches.

At Baltimore—

Athletic..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-8

Baltimore..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-8

Base hits—Chicago, 5; Baltimore, 6. Errors—

Athletic, 6; Baltimore, 11. Umpire—Mr. Somers.

At Philadelphia—

Boston..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-0-20

Philadelphia..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 3-2-1-8

Base hits—Boston, 20; Philadelphia, 15. Errors—

Boston, 5; Philadelphia, 12. Umpire—Mr. Duffin.

At New York—

Providence..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 1-14

New York..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Base hits—Providence, 17; New York, 6. Errors—

Providence, 8; New York, 10. Umpire—O'Dlin.

At Chicago—

Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

Detroit..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 3-0-7

Base hits—Chicago, 11; Detroit, 12. Errors—Chicago, 7; Detroit, 4. Umpire—Lane.

At Cleveland—

Cleveland..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-5

Buffalo..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 1-0-4

Base hits—Cleveland, 11; Buffalo, 11. Errors—

Cleveland, 4; Buffalo, 4. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Cincinnati—

Louisville..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-3-5

Cincinnati..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0-2

Base hits—Louisville, 10; Cincinnati, 10. Errors—

Louisville, 10; Cincinnati, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Allegheny City—

Metropolitan..... 3 0 1 1 0 0 0-8

Pittsburgh..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-8

Base hits—Metropolitan, 10; Pittsburgh, 10. Errors—

Metropolitan, 10; Pittsburgh, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Columbus, Ohio—

Columbus..... 0 2 0 0 0 0 1-4

St. Louis..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 0-3

Base hits—Columbus, 10; St. Louis, 10. Errors—

Columbus, 10; St. Louis, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Trenton, N. J. (Interstate championship)—

Active of Reading..... 3 0 0 0 1 3 2-6-15

Trenton..... 0 0 0 0 1 1 0-0-0

At Camden, N. J. (Interstate championship)—

Harrisburg..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1

Merritt..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 3-1-2

Base hits—Harrisburg, 10; Merritt, 10. Errors—

Harrisburg, 10; Merritt, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Newark—

Anthracite..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-2

Brooklyn..... 0 0 2 0 2 0 1-2-5

Base hits—Anthracite, 10; Brooklyn, 10. Errors—

Anthracite, 10; Brooklyn, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

Scalchi in Concert.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—Dr. Darnoch began the first concert of a series he has arranged through the west at Smith & Nixon's hall to-night with his orchestra, Mme. Scalchi, Mlle. Martinez, and Miss Gail, pianist. The chief interest was in Scalchi's singing, which was heard with warm expressions of delight. There were about 1,000 in attendance.

The Champion Checker Player.

NEW YORK, May 7.—C. F. Barker, the champion checker player of America, who recently arrived here from Boston, to-night played nineteen games of checkers with various members of the New York Checker club. He won fifteen games and lost one, the other three being drawn.

Oh! Ye of Little Faith.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 7.—In joint meeting to-day the Methodist ministers discussed prohibition, and mutually agreeing that no faith could be placed in any political party determined to call a state convention of ministers at a future date to resolve on vigorous temperance action.

Another Postmaster Shift.

PRINCETON, Ill., May 7.—Harry G. Burgess, postmaster here, was taken to Peoria to-day by a special agent of the Postoffice department on the charge of being $1,700 short in his registered accounts.

"USURPATORY" ARISTOCRACY.

Scandal in the Family of S. J. Tilden.

NEW YORK, May 7.—In the surrogate's court to-day much excitement was created by the development of a peculiar, interesting, and romantic story. The principal actors are young men of high social standing and wealth. The story is as follows: In 1869 William Tilden, a brother of S. J. Tilden, died, leaving an estate valued at $2,500,000. He divided it equally between his four sons—William, Milnor C., Marmaduke, and Beverly B. Tilden, aged 20, 15, 12, and 9 years. For the eldest of the four, William, David Dow, Charles Tracey, and N. C. Ely were appointed executors. In 1870 the executors employed an Italian named Biaggi as tutor and manager for the boys and they were sent to Europe. In Paris they acquired the reputation of being the "Princes of Wales" and other members of the royal family of England. They then proceeded to Berlin and lived in sumptuous style, expending in sixteen months about $70,000. The eldest of the four, William, purchased a place in Coburg for $40,000, and with it the title of baron. While in his palace he became very much interested in the wife of the former owner, and very soon was under complete control of her husband, to whom he gave a power of attorney, and permitted to purchase all the furniture for his palace. In 1872 the executors discovered the condition of affairs abroad, and by the payment of very large sums to the young man was enabled to bring him to this country. The four then conceived the idea of a ball in honor of Americans in Germany. They hired an immense hall at great expense, and gave the ball, which was well attended. When they returned home the executors footed up their expenses for two years and four months as $185,000. They were sent to Howard college, but did not remain there. William was made an executor of the estate and in 1874 a partition was made, whereby he was given the estate. He was compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid. In 1877 the eldest of the four, William, was again in Germany, and he was again under the control of the wife of the former owner, and he was again compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid.

RICHMOND NEWS.

An Attempt at Murder—The Manager of the Penitentiary Assaulted by a Convict—
Railway Matters.

RICHMOND, Va., May 7.—Early this morning George S. Peyton, proprietor of a store on Venable street, went to the old market and told a butcher that he had started out to kill four colored men, and intended to do it in a very short while. Peyton had two large pistols in his hands at the time, and when he left the butcher and walked off flourishing the two revolvers, Policeman Hardie was informed of what Peyton had said, and that officer immediately went in search of him. The first colored man that Peyton saw was Barney Branch, a quiet and inoffensive fish dealer in the market. Peyton walked deliberately up to him, and placing one of the revolvers at Branch's head, fired. The bullet entered just under the left ear and passed through the neck, making a dangerous wound. Branch fell to the pavement, and as soon as he struck the ground Peyton jumped on him and attempted to fire again, and would have done so but for the timely arrival of Policeman Hardie, who caught Peyton's hand and took the pistols away from him. Peyton made an effort to shoot Mr. Hardie, but the policeman was too quick for him. The affair created considerable excitement, and caused a general stampede in the market. Subsequently small crowds of people congregated about the market and talked over the shooting, which was severely condemned on all sides. William Slater, a white man, publicly asserted that he would be the first to kill Peyton out of the station house, where he had been hastily taken, and lynch him. An officer heard the remark and arrested Slater. He was taken before the police court and bound over in the sum of $300 to keep the peace. Peyton was taken to the station house and held in custody. His case was continued until Friday in consequence of the inability of the wounded man to appear. Branch may probably die. Peyton was formerly proprietor of St. Charles Hotel. His friends claim that he was charged with a colored convict, who is serving a term of fifteen years for burglary. Mr. Wood remanded the convict for failure to do his duty. This made the prisoner mad, and he picked up a cooper's adze and dealt Mr. Wood a severe blow on the head, inflicting an ugly wound, from which blood flowed freely. The other convicts ran to the assistance of Mr. Wood, and would not doubt have killed the convict who struck him had not the guards been called in and quieted the enraged convicts at the point of pistols and guns.

BASE BALL BULLETIN.

Games in Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia,
and Other Cities.

Special Dispatches.

At Baltimore—

Athletic..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-8

Baltimore..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-8

Base hits—Chicago, 5; Baltimore, 6. Errors—

Athletic, 6; Baltimore, 11. Umpire—Mr. Somers.

At Philadelphia—

Boston..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-0-20

Philadelphia..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 3-2-1-8

Base hits—Boston, 20; Philadelphia, 15. Errors—

Boston, 5; Philadelphia, 12. Umpire—Mr. Duffin.

At New York—

Providence..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 1-14

New York..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-3

Base hits—Providence, 17; New York, 6. Errors—

Providence, 8; New York, 10. Umpire—O'Dlin.

At Chicago—

Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

Detroit..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 3-0-7

Base hits—Chicago, 11; Detroit, 12. Errors—Chicago, 7; Detroit, 4. Umpire—Lane.

At Cleveland—

Cleveland..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-5

Buffalo..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 1-0-4

Base hits—Cleveland, 11; Buffalo, 11. Errors—

Cleveland, 4; Buffalo, 4. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Cincinnati—

Louisville..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-3-5

Cincinnati..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0-2

Base hits—Louisville, 10; Cincinnati, 10. Errors—

Louisville, 10; Cincinnati, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Allegheny City—

Metropolitan..... 3 0 1 1 0 0 0-8

Pittsburgh..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-8

Base hits—Metropolitan, 10; Pittsburgh, 10. Errors—

Metropolitan, 10; Pittsburgh, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Columbus, Ohio—

Columbus..... 0 2 0 0 0 0 1-4

St. Louis..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 0-3

Base hits—Columbus, 10; St. Louis, 10. Errors—

Columbus, 10; St. Louis, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Trenton, N. J. (Interstate championship)—

Active of Reading..... 3 0 0 0 1 3 2-6-15

Trenton..... 0 0 0 0 1 1 0-0-0

At Camden, N. J. (Interstate championship)—

Harrisburg..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1

Merritt..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 3-1-2

Base hits—Harrisburg, 10; Merritt, 10. Errors—

Harrisburg, 10; Merritt, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

At Newark—

Anthracite..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-2

Brooklyn..... 0 0 2 0 2 0 1-2-5

Base hits—Anthracite, 10; Brooklyn, 10. Errors—

Anthracite, 10; Brooklyn, 10. Umpire—Ferguson.

Scalchi in Concert.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—Dr. Darnoch began the first concert of a series he has arranged through the west at Smith & Nixon's hall to-night with his orchestra, Mme. Scalchi, Mlle. Martinez, and Miss Gail, pianist. The chief interest was in Scalchi's singing, which was heard with warm expressions of delight. There were about 1,000 in attendance.

The Champion Checker Player.

NEW YORK, May 7.—C. F. Barker, the champion checker player of America, who recently arrived here from Boston, to-night played nineteen games of checkers with various members of the New York Checker club. He won fifteen games and lost one, the other three being drawn.

Oh! Ye of Little Faith.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 7.—In joint meeting to-day the Methodist ministers discussed prohibition, and mutually agreeing that no faith could be placed in any political party determined to call a state convention of ministers at a future date to resolve on vigorous temperance action.

Another Postmaster Shift.

PRINCETON, Ill., May 7.—Harry G. Burgess, postmaster here, was taken to Peoria to-day by a special agent of the Postoffice department on the charge of being $1,700 short in his registered accounts.

"USURPATORY" ARISTOCRACY.

Scandal in the Family of S. J. Tilden.

NEW YORK, May 7.—In the surrogate's court to-day much excitement was created by the development of a peculiar, interesting, and romantic story. The principal actors are young men of high social standing and wealth. The story is as follows: In 1869 William Tilden, a brother of S. J. Tilden, died, leaving an estate valued at $2,500,000. He divided it equally between his four sons—William, Milnor C., Marmaduke, and Beverly B. Tilden, aged 20, 15, 12, and 9 years. For the eldest of the four, William, David Dow, Charles Tracey, and N. C. Ely were appointed executors. In 1870 the executors employed an Italian named Biaggi as tutor and manager for the boys and they were sent to Europe. In Paris they acquired the reputation of being the "Princes of Wales" and other members of the royal family of England. They then proceeded to Berlin and lived in sumptuous style, expending in sixteen months about $70,000. The eldest of the four, William, purchased a place in Coburg for $40,000, and with it the title of baron. While in his palace he became very much interested in the wife of the former owner, and very soon was under complete control of her husband, to whom he gave a power of attorney, and permitted to purchase all the furniture for his palace. In 1872 the executors discovered the condition of affairs abroad, and by the payment of very large sums to the young man was enabled to bring him to this country. The four then conceived the idea of a ball in honor of Americans in Germany. They hired an immense hall at great expense, and gave the ball, which was well attended. When they returned home the executors footed up their expenses for two years and four months as $185,000. They were sent to Howard college, but did not remain there. William was made an executor of the estate and in 1874 a partition was made, whereby he was given the estate. He was compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid. In 1877 the eldest of the four, William, was again in Germany, and he was again under the control of the wife of the former owner, and he was again compelled to give up owing to his inability to manage it. Many accounts were had, for which large commissions were paid.

RICHMOND NEWS.

An Attempt at Murder—The Manager of the Penitentiary Assaulted by a Convict—
Railway Matters.

RICHMOND, Va., May 7.—Early this morning George S. Peyton, proprietor of a store on Venable street, went to the old market and told a butcher that he had started out to kill four colored men, and intended to do it in a very short while. Peyton had two large pistols in his hands at the time, and when he